

Welcome to the first Newsletter from Austin-Healey Racing Sweden

Austin-Healey Racing Sweden is proud to present their new main sponsor AH Performance Spares for the season of 2008. AH Performance Spares with the main company AH Spares is the worlds largest supplier of Austin-Healey spare parts and are well known for their complete product range, quality, competitive prices and trustable supplies.

"We have developed our performance parts over the last couple of years. We are now able to supply all parts needed for serious competition and with Austin-Healey Racing Sweden we have the chance of getting our parts on the international competition scene proving their performance and durability!"

Jonathan Hill, MD AH Spares

The team Austin-Healey Racing Sweden with young driver Anders Schildt are very pleased with 2007 season. The season resulted in 9 class wins out of 11 starts.

"Last season was great and more successful than we ever hoped for. There is still a lot of development to do on the car. With the support from AH Performance Spares for 2008 we feel that we are getting much closer to perfection!"

Anders Schildt, driver Austin-Healey Racing Sweden.

The car is currently totally dismantled and will receive a complete overhaul in every aspect before assembly, set up and fine tuning. The engine output will be increased as well as adjusted spring rates, corner weight, etc. The car will also receive one of AH Performance spares chassis. A chassis manufactured with precision and skill by craftsmen who knows the business.
